

OUYC Term Card: Yachting

The OUYC Yachting side provides many unforgettable racing and cruising opportunities. We have a core squad which races all year round, culminating with BUSA Student Nationals at Easter, with both a first team and a development team. For those looking to try out sailing for the first time, or to sail non-competitively, our cruising side offers trips around the South Coast each term. Most exciting of all is our main cruising event, the OUYC Extravaganza! Sign up is live now!

Theory will take place from 8pm at St Catz- please come along if you are interested in sailing this year!

OUYC Term Card: Dinghy Sailing

The OUYC Dinghy side is pleased to provide a host of racing and casual sailing experiences to suit whatever level of sailor you are. We hold trials during 1st and 2nd week to set out a core squad that trains and races all year round, and this term ahead is filled with exciting opportunities for both Fleet and Team racing. Moreover, we have a great social program to offer alongside which we encourage everyone to attend, including weekly socials as well as our club-wide Christmas dinner. Please do come meet us at our welcome drinks in 1st week to hear more in person about what OUYC can offer you!
